Those who contemplate advertising may fear that because The Tribune is young its circulation is too small to be of benefit to them. We desire to say that in addition to our regular list we shall circulate enough sample copies each week to make our circulation equal to or greater than that of any paper in the county, and thus give the advertiser the proper service.

M. N. Bair the architect has just completed the plans for the new building to be occupied by the new National Bank of Humboldt. The building will be an imposing structure of stone and pressed brick and will cost about $6,000. Mr. Bair has also completed plans for a fine $3,000 residence to be erected at Humboldt by Dr. Howard Marsh.

O. P. Heck is no longer the duly constituted representative of the Pacific Express Co., the up town office having been discontinued. This will work a great hardship on the patrons of the company as many of them will now be compelled to make a trip to the Pacific depot to transact any little business they may have with the company.

Chas. F. Hoffman has moved his tailoring establishment and stock of Gent's Furnishings into the building formerly occupied by Gossett & Fisher's second hand store. The new quarters are far more commodious and better adapted to his business than the old location.

Mrs. Jane Shoup received a letter Sunday from an old friend and neighbor, Mrs. John Hidy, of Waukomis, O. T., saying that her husband was not expected to live, being a sufferer from asthma. Mrs. Shoup left Monday night for that place.

Sunday was a very fine day, even for a Nebraska winter. It was so beautiful that a certain young lady wrote two stanzas of a spring poem before she chanced to look at the calendar.

There has been a great deal of talk about prospecting coal, gas and oil in Richardson county, but nothing has ever come of it. Let's drop the subject and go after something worth while. Let's prospect for radium.

Miss Mildred Whipple was in Preston one night last week where she went to install the newly elected officers of the Royal Neighbors of that place.

This will be a year of red fire and much hilarity. It will be a year of political rallies and Falls City always has her share of such things.

A good audience saw "At Valley Forge" at The Gehling Saturday night. We have not heard anybody complain about the play.
